JUDGE ONE

JESSICA

LEGENDS DANCE CUP LEAD ADJUDICATOR

DAVISON

Jessica Davison has been immersed in the dance world for over 20 years, training and competing across Canada and the United States. Throughout her career, she has had the privilege of working with renowned choreographers both locally and internationally, enriching her artistic perspective and professional expertise.

In 2012, Jessica earned her Certificate in Ballet Teaching Studies through the Royal Academy of Dance. Since then, she has successfully trained dancers of all ages, guiding them through both RAD vocational and graded examinations. Her commitment to lifelong learning is evident in her regular participation in professional development courses and seminars, continually expanding her knowledge and pedagogical approach to dance education.

Jessica holds a Bachelor of Arts with concentrations in Sociology and English Literature, a Bachelor of Education, and is currently completing her Master of Education at Queen's University. Her academic background compliments her artistic endeavours, allowing her to bring a well-rounded and thoughtful approach to teaching. Jessica is now a full-time educator in the school district.

As a choreographer, Jessica has created award-winning pieces for dancers of all ages, with her work receiving top honours at competitions throughout Canada and the U.S. She has taught and choreographed in both private dance studios and public schools across British Columbia and Alberta. Additionally, she has served as an adjudicator, offering insightful and encouraging feedback to emerging talent across Western Canada.

Jessica is excited to witness the incredible talent taking the stage this weekend!

JUDGE TWO

AFTER HOURS LEAD ADJUDICATOR

Kelsea Fitzpatrick is an adult-dance specialist coming to us from Calgary Alberta. She is a highly respected dance educator, choreographer, and adjudicator with over 25 years of experience in the local and international dance community. As the Owner and Director of The Dance Compound in Calgary, AB, she has cultivated a vibrant and inclusive space that fosters technical excellence and artistic exploration for dancers of all levels.

A graduate of Queen's University with a B.Sc. in Chemical Engineering, Kelsea's analytical and biomechanics background uniquely informs her approach to dance training. As former Co-Captain of the Queen's University Dance Team, she led the team to numerous awards, including a prestigious appearance as a finalist at the NDA College Nationals in Daytona, FL, and multiple championships at the Terpsichore UDC Cup in Guelph, ON. She later pursued graduate studies in Biomedical Engineering at the University of Calgary, further integrating movement science and biomechanics into her dance education philosophy.

Kelsea's career spans recreation, competitive, collegiate, and pre-professional dance. She has coached the Mount Royal University Cubs Dance Team and spent eight years with En Corps Dance Collective as a dancer, choreographer, Board Member, and Artistic Director, overseeing full-length pre-professional productions for the Calgary arts community. Her extensive teaching and choreography experience includes multi-discipline dance studies with award-winning works recognized across Western Canada.

In addition to her studio leadership, Kelsea is the co-Founder of TrueWest Dance Invitational, an innovative adult-focused competition celebrating artistry, athleticism, and lifelong dance. As a certified member of the Professional Adjudicators Alliance, she brings a balanced perspective to the judging panel, blending technical precision with encouragement. Her certifications with RAD, ADAPT, Acrobatic Arts, and other leading training programs ensure she evaluates performances with a well-rounded and informed eye.

Kelsea is passionate about delivering insightful, constructive, and inspiring feedback that helps dancers grow with confidence, clarity, and purpose.
